

Dear Louisa,

KEXP listeners share a passion for great music, but because our audience spans the globe, we definitely don't share the same weather. But whether you're in Australia or Alabama, you make summer sizzle at KEXP. You power everything you hear, see and experience on KEXP, including our free Concerts at the Mural series (which kicks off this Friday, August 2), our remote broadcasts from the Bumbershoot Music Lounge, and in-studios from great bands like Sebadoh, the Moondoggies, and Smith Westerns.

We are extraordinarily grateful for your support. Thank you!

Love,
Your KEXP Development Team

Summer Fun: Concerts at the Mural

Get ready to enjoy Seattle's warm summer nights with the 2013 Concerts at the Mural series, brought to you by Seattle Center and KEXP! These free, all-ages shows on Friday evenings feature local and national independent artists playing outdoors at Seattle Center's Mural Amphitheater. This year's lineup includes Cloud Cult, Deep Sea Diver, Mudhoney, Rose Windows, and a special Decibel Festival showcase headlined by Luisine.

Concerts at the Mural kicks off on August 2nd with the return of "No Depression" Night. Music starts each week at 5:30 PM, so come early to get prime seats on the lawn, enjoy the beer garden (if you are 21+), and listen to KEXP DJs. For more info and the complete schedule, please visit KEXP.ORG. Sponsored in part by Whole Foods Market and Chipotle Mexican Grill.

People Power KEXP: Sarah Otto

"I was hooked the first time I tuned in to KEXP and heard Cheryl playing 'Elevator Love Letter' by Stars," recalls Cleveland donor Sarah Otto. Immediately she felt like she'd found kindred spirits. That sense of connection was so strong that she felt compelled to tour KEXP when she visited Seattle two years later, and was "overwhelmed" by the warmth shown by volunteers and staff. "KEXP is as much about the people who are involved in it as it is about the music," says Sarah "Even from a distance, I always feel a part of that community."

Sarah invests both time and money to keep that community strong. She's traveled cross-country to volunteer during fundraising drives, and enrolled in the Amplifiers Monthly Giving Club almost immediately after its inception in 2010. "I had been donating at every fundraising drive since 2007, so it seemed a natural step to make the
